

A close-up photograph of a woman's face and hands. She has bright red lipstick and a mole on her chin. Her hands are clasped in front of her chest, wearing white gloves. She is wearing a white, textured, ribbed sweater. The background is blurred, showing green foliage.

andreadunne
originaldesigns

Andrea Dunne is a textile designer based in Brighton and Hove, UK. Her beautiful knitted products are handmade and finished at her Brighton studio and for larger fabrics, in Nottinghamshire.

Meticulous attention to tension, weight and handling result in a top class finish. Andrea's stylish designs will add an enviable touch of style and luxury to you or your home.

bespoke design

Her stunning collection is of the highest standard with an attention to detail that gives all of her products a look and feel of outstanding quality. You will really enjoy wearing her scarves, hats and clothing, which achieve style as well as practicality.

Her cushions and throws will add that special touch of elegance to your home. Children and babies will love the softness and colours of her hats, scarves, mittens and shawls.

Andrea graduated in 2001 and has since been designing and making knitted products with a streak of woven textiles, her specialist subject, to wear and use in the home. Her work, increasingly in demand, is produced using specially sourced yarn from Scotland and Yorkshire.

handmade

handtailored

handfinished

